GREENVILLE NEWS

Miss Edna White Given Surprise Party

—Rev. C. H. Ricketts to Officiate at Stafford Springs Funeral—Local Laconics.

Miss Edna White was given a surprise party at home on North Main street Wednesday evening by a number of friends in honor of her birthday anniversary. The affair was a complete surprise to Miss White, but she bade all welcome and a very pleasant evening was passed by it. It was expected that several guests would be present from New London, but owing to unforeseen difficulties they were unable to attend. Vocal and instrumental music was rendered and there were several recitations. Miss White received a handsome bracelet from her friends, besides other pretty gifts. Refreshments were served, after which the guests departed, all wishing their hostess many more happy birthdays.

To Officiate at Stafford Springs Funeral.

Rev. C. H. Ricketts, pastor of the Greenville Congregational church, will officiate at the funeral of Myron P. Avery in Stafford Springs today (Friday). Rev. E. H. Thayer of Somers will assist Rev. Mr. Ricketts at the service.

Bears 22, Elephants 16.

In an exciting game on a Bowell avenue diamond on Thursday afternoon the Bears claimed a victory over the Elephants by the score of 22 to 16. Seven home runs were made by the Bears during the last three innings. The Bears were the heavier hitters, although the Elephants showed more control. Another game is to be played between these teams next Monday.

Personals.

Mrs. Thomas Haslam and son Frederick were visitors at Niantic Wednesday. Mrs. Haslam has returned, but Frederick remains in Niantic for a week as the guest of Mrs. Charles Pedrick.

TAFTVILLE AFFAIRS

Farewell Party for Miss Sadie MaJeune—Baltic Clerks Here Next Thursday—Local Items of Interest.

Miss Sadie MaJeune, who will leave next week, probably Tuesday for Canada, where she is to make her home with relatives, was given a farewell party by a few personal friends on Wednesday evening. The affair was a very pleasant one, and the evening was much enjoyed by the half dozen present and there was a well rendered musical programme. Several refreshments were served, after which light refreshments were served. The guests left for home shortly after 11 o'clock, all wishing Miss MaJeune the best of luck in her new home.

Iron Gratings in Position.

The iron window gratings on the four windows on the north side of the new Taftville postoffice were placed in position on Wednesday. The main door was hung this week and the postoffice is now practically ready for occupancy.

Personals.

Miss Ora Trudeau leaves next week for a few weeks' visit in Canada.

George Havens will leave Monday for Hoboken, where he will spend several weeks with relatives.

Miss Louise Chartier, who is passing a month at Pleasure Beach, was a visitor at her home here the first of the week.

The Baltic Clerks will come here on next Thursday afternoon to cross bats with the Taftville Clerks. The game is to be played on the Providence street diamond.

LONG HIKE FOR TROOPS.

Company A of Fifth Infantry Will March from Niantic to Keene, N. H.

Early Sunday morning Company A, Fifth Infantry, U. S. A., will march from New London bound for Keene, N. H. Company A is at the camp of the Connecticut National guard, Niantic, being detailed there to show the National guard "how."

At 5:30 Sunday morning, after a hearty breakfast, the company will begin the march. The troops will pass over the main road to New London and expect to reach there about 8 o'clock.

They will go as far as Quaker Hill, a march of 12 miles, and camp there over night. By stages the company will march as far as Keene, N. H., where there will be a coach to take the troops to Pittsburg, N. Y., where they are stationed.
